Loans

Federal Direct Student Loans	The loan limits for the year are based on grade level and FAFSA dependency status. The amounts given are the estimated net amounts after the loan origination fee is charged by the Dept. of Education. This is the combined amount for Sub. and Unsub. Loans (see below)	Sophomore <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Dependent - $6,432 • Independent - $10,390
Subsidized Loans	If you are attending school at least half time (6 credits), then the DOE will pay your interest until the six month period after graduation, called the “Grace Period”.
Unsubsidized Loans	Interest accumulates at the start of the loan period.
PLUS Loans	This is a federal loan parents can receive for up to the amount of the cost of attendance minus any other aid received. If the parent has an adverse credit history or there are extenuating circumstances such as a recent bankruptcy, then the student may receive the independent loan amount listed above. Parent must complete application and Master Promissory Note (MPN) at StudentLoans.gov, and then notify us by email.

Other ways to pay:

Other Scholarships	Any private scholarships that you might be awarded can be used to pay for school expenses. Notify us by email about scholarships you are receiving.
529 College Savings Plan	If you have a 529 plan, you may use funds from it to pay for school expenses. Follow-up with your plan provider for details about making a withdrawal.
Private Loans	You can apply for private loans with an organization that you prefer, such as your bank, or with organizations that we’ve already provided our information to at this link: https://choice.fastproducts.org/FastChoice/home/4227800/1

Payment Plans

If you are unable to pay for the Spring semester in advance, a payment plan will be issued to you. The payment plan will be set up in monthly payments. The payment plan fee is $150 per semester. After your financial aid is scheduled, we will contact you to discuss the payment plan amounts.
